Code of Conduct for Committee Members

As leaders of the club, committee members are expected to act with integrity, transparency, and in the best interests of the club, its members, and the wider community.

This Code of Conduct is based on the Judo Moral Code: Courtesy, Courage, Friendship, Honesty, Honour, Modesty, Respect, and Self-control.

General Responsibilities

- Always act in the best interests of the club and its members.
- Ensure the club complies with its constitution, policies, and legal obligations.
- Promote inclusion, fairness, and equal opportunity for all members.
- Prepare for and attend committee meetings regularly.
- Respect and uphold collective decisions, even if personal views differ.

Behaviour & Integrity

- Act with honesty, integrity, and transparency in all club matters.
- Avoid conflicts of interest and declare any potential conflicts immediately.
- Treat all players, parents, coaches, volunteers, and fellow committee members with respect.
- Maintain confidentiality on sensitive matters discussed within committee meetings.
- Never misuse club funds, resources, or influence for personal gain.

Safeguarding & Duty of Care

- Support and promote the club's safeguarding and child protection policies.
- Ensure due diligence in the recruitment of volunteers, coaches, and committee members (PVG checks, safeguarding training).
- Prioritise the welfare and wellbeing of all players, especially children and vulnerable adults.
