Code of Conduct for Parents & Guardians

Parents and guardians play a vital role in supporting their child's development in judo. The club asks that all parents/guardians uphold the values of judo and create a positive, respectful environment that allows all players to thrive.

This Code of Conduct is based on the Judo Moral Code: Courtesy, Courage, Friendship, Honesty, Honour, Modesty, Respect, and Self-control.

General Responsibilities

- Ensure your child holds a valid JudoScotland licence.
- Make sure your child arrives on time, with the correct kit and equipment.
- Encourage good hygiene (clean Judogi, trimmed nails, long hair tied back).
- Inform coaches of any medical conditions, injuries, or special requirements.
- Ensure fees are paid on time to support the running of the club.

Behaviour & Support

- Support your child's involvement in judo in a positive and constructive way.
- Encourage effort, enjoyment, and development over results or winning.
- Respect coaches' instructions and decisions during training and competition.
- Avoid coaching your child from the sidelines - allow coaches to coach.
- Never shout, ridicule, or use abusive language towards players, coaches, referees, or other parents.

Club & Community Values

- Promote the club positively inside and outside training.
- Support club fundraising, events, and volunteering opportunities where possible.
- Encourage your child to live by the values of judo both on and off the mat.
- Respect that the club is run by volunteers for the benefit of all members.
